NOTHING FOR THIS HUSBAND TO FORGIVE

Editor Journal.—I feel constrained to say a few words in reply to the mushy effusion in last week's Journal from "A Husband" who feels that a husband should forgive his wife, even when confronted by proofs of her past. I only hope that the moving picture "Should a Husband Forgive?" to which he refers, has been made by a man courageous enough to tell the truth and not trundle to sentimentalism.

I am a husband myself and so happily married that I realize that true happiness can come only through mutual affection and trust; and how can either husband or wife trust the other if their life is going to be just one forgiveness after another?

I trust my wife because I know there is nothing to forgive, and I am sure she feels the same way about me. If she came to me with some terrible confession, my faith would be shattered. I certainly would not forgive. It would be unjust to ask me to overlook the fact that our life together was founded on a lie.

All this talk that a husband should forgive and forgive seems to me to be mawkish sentimentality. Anyone who thinks it can, either adopts this stand to cover his shortcomings or is just an ordinary fool.

I thank you for this chance to speak a few plain words on a subject of universal interest. A REAL HUSBAND.

Catarhal Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure catarrhal deafness, and that is by a constitutional remedy. Catarrhal Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result. Unless the inflammation can be reduced and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. Many cases of deafness are caused by catarrh, which is an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces. Hall's Catarrh Medicine acts thru the blood on the mucous surfaces of the system. We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Catarrhal Deafness that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Medicine. Circulars free. All Druggists. 75c. F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O.
